parts of the Annapurna massif. With its recent introduction, a sizeable number of trekkers have started to flock to this region to discover its pristine beauty. The rustic villages inhabited by ethnic communities like Gurung have added charm to this region. The Khopra Poon Hill Mohare Trek by Himalaya Land Treks explores these unexplored areas and also makes a pit stop at Poon Hill, the must-visit place of the Annapurna region.

Mohare Danda Khopra Trek package is 15 days long and it starts at Kathmandu. Then, you drive to the city of lakes- Pokhara, and head to Nayapul. From there, you start to trek to Ghandruk, the largest Gurung settlement and the best place to discover their culture. Next, you trek through rhododendron forests, lush hills and pass by villages like Bayeli to reach Khopra Danda. There, you spend a whole day to explore the area including the Khopra ridge and Khayer Lake.

Khayer Lake is a sacred place for Hindus where pilgrims flock during Janai Purnima. Since the trail to this lake is difficult, you may opt to do an easier hike to high places to get panoramic views of Dhaulagiri and Annapurna ranges. After enjoying Khopra Danda, you head to Poon Hill via Ghorepani. This vantage point is also one of the most iconic spots to witness the vistas of Annapurna and Dhaulagiri ranges.

After viewing the breathtaking sunrise, you head to Mohare Danda. From there, you also get to see amazing views of mountain ranges. After completing the last leg of the trip, you head to Galeswor and from there, you drive to Pokhara. The best time to do this trip is during spring and autumn seasons. It is recommended to have prior trekking experience, but beginners can also complete this trek.

With Himalaya Land Treks, you get quality services of transportation and accommodation at bargain prices. You can also edit some itineraries of the tour packages as per your liking. We also provide you with the best professional guides.
